

The Facilities

The Lodge: A great place to gather, enjoy the fireplace, or relax. You will enjoy delicious home cooked meals. Please let us know about any special dietary restrictions prior to your arrival.

The Cabins: These nine one room log buildings have electricity, woodstoves, single and bunked beds with 6 bunk beds. Five have bathrooms in them and 4 utilize central bathhouses.

The New Cabins:

Divided into four individual spaces, these two story cabins provide an excellent place for meeting as well as lodging. Cabins sleep up to 12 people and include personal bathrooms.

Above New Cabins:

These four separate sleeping areas each have 6 lower beds and utilize a nearby bathhouse.

Housing: Normally each family has its own space during Family Camps and Retreats. Please contact the camp office with specific housing requests.

The Bathhouses: Consist of individual toilet and shower stalls, which are easily accessed from both the lodge and the cabins.

The Fire Rings: Large and small, are fitted with comfortable seating for evening campfires.

The Meadow: Open and pristine, this is a fun place for large group games and out-

Claiming the Wisdom in our Hearts: A Memoir Writing Workshop

with Susan Rowe

Writing memoir is a way to claim the wisdom in our hearts—wisdom earned through a lifetime of experiences. In this way, memoir becomes a spiritual practice, an opportunity to bring our personal stories—even the painful ones—into the light and find moments of grace.

During this weekend workshop, we'll look at extraordinary examples of memoir to see how personal narrative allows us to discover our shared human experience. We'll review the building blocks of creative nonfiction writing to build a strong foundation for your memoir practice.

And we'll use prompts and short writing exercises to get your thoughts flowing in a variety of writing styles and formats. You'll leave with fresh inspiration, new ways to approach memoir, and the blessings of taking part in a writing community.

This workshop is for all would-be memoirists regardless of experience level. Please bring a pen, notebook, and a spirit of curiosity and play.

About Susan Rowe

Susan has an MFA in creative writing from Boise State University. She has taught creative nonfiction and memoir workshops for Boise State, the Cabin, and the Osher Institute for Lifelong Learning. Her writing has appeared in Creative Nonfiction, The American Oxonian, Penny, Quest Magazine, and the book, Fighting the World's Fight: Rhodes Scholars in Oxford and Beyond. A graduate of Oxford University, she is working on a memoir about growing up on a farm in the Idaho desert.

OUR MISSION

“Through safe and amazing experiences, Luther Heights Bible Camp proclaims the Gospel, builds faith, strengthens the body of Christ by serving all people.”
