John 1:16 (NRSV)

Retreat Leader

PASTOR INGER HANSON -

Serves Shepherd of the Mountains Lutheran Church in Jackson, WY. Pastoring taps into skills and strengths developed in a rather eclectic education and career path. She grew up in Alaska, but spent formative years in New Hampshire. Her studies ranged from premed requirements to screenwriting, and she explored careers in teaching and sales (with an outdoor clothing and then in pharmaceuticals) before going to seminary. Pastor Inger thrives in the variety and interconnection of a pastor's life – study and reflection preparing a sermon or a worship service, teaching, counseling, and cultivating community – all grounded in showing God's love. She is often accompanied in work and play by Hobe the wonder dog. Her zest for life and God is nourished by outdoor activities (especially hiking, biking and kayaking), music, books, baking, and time with family and friends.

Important Notices for Women's Retreat

Regarding Accommodations/Accessibility

LHBC has several cabins with ADA accessible bathrooms and the Sawtooth Lodge has bathroom stalls that meet ADA accessibility requirements. HOWEVER, the paths between cabins, and between cabins and the Sawtooth Lodge are dirt and uneven ground and are not hard-surfaced. LHBC strives to be accessible for all people in all areas, but at this point we are not.

Regarding Parking, Unloading and Loading of Cars

Upon arrival, please park your vehicle in the main, front lot. Camp staff will be available to help transport your belongings by cart from the car to your cabin. The previous methods of driving in to the cabin areas to unload and load have proven to be chaotic and sometimes damaging to cars. Your cooperation and patience are very much appreciated!

Regarding Housing

Efforts will be made by the host church, in assigning cabins, to keep church groups together as the lower bunk space allows. However, if your group must be split up for housing, please see it as a wonderful opportunity to get to know other sisters in Christ. You will be blessed in your boldness!

Thank you! - LHBC Staff
