

Fly-Fishing Retreat (All Ages)

Come explore some of Idaho's best waters in the heart of the Sawtooth Mountains. Whether you are an experienced angler or an adventurous novice, this is the perfect opportunity for you! The weekend will include casting lessons, fly fishing workshops, and time on the water pursuing some world class Idaho trout. Do come out for a weekend of great fellowship and fly fishing in the Sawtooth Mountains.

Weekend Schedule

Friday:

Registration is from 3:00-6:00 p.m. shortly followed by dinner at 6:00 p.m. After dinner that evening, we welcome everyone to camp with an orientation and introductions of staff members. After the welcoming there will be an introduction to casting. At the close of the day, we will gather around the campfire for evening worship. After worship there is time for snacks and fellowship in the lodge.

Saturday

Breakfast begins at 8:00 a.m. followed by worship in the outdoor chapel, the meadow, or one of many other beautiful spots at Luther Heights. The greater part of the morning will be spent casting, or learning how to cast, and learning about the different types of flies.

A sack lunch will be provided. During the afternoon you will have time to practice your casting skills out on local streams. Later in the day you are welcome to continue fishing or take a nap, go canoeing, take a hike, and more.

At 6:00 p.m. we will gather for dinner. Following will be a session about how to tie flies. At the close of the day, we will gather around the campfire for evening worship. After worship there is time for snacks and fellowship in the lodge.

Sunday

Breakfast begins at 8:00 a.m. followed by worship in the outdoor chapel, the meadow, or one of many other beautiful spots at Luther Heights. After worship there will be additional time to go fishing or ask any questions of the weekend's instructor. We will gather for lunch at 12:00 p.m. and depart shortly after.
